Does facing a blank sheet of paper or computer screen make you anxious, worried or even a little panicky?

Take heart — you’re not alone! For countless professionals just like you, sitting down to write an email, memo, report, letter, proposal or other business document is an exercise in frustration. Whether you are unsure of what to say and how to say it, intimidated by the whole writing process, worried you’ll let foolish mistakes slip through or just wish your writing had a little more “oomph” to it, Engaging and Polished Business Writing and Grammar can help.

Give us just two days, and you’ll be absolutely astounded at how much your writing will improve. From short memos to lengthy reports, you’ll learn to write clear, compelling and error-free business documents. You’ll master the use of powerful, persuasive language to support your ideas, learn to structure your sentences and paragraphs for maximum impact, eliminate tricky grammar mistakes and proofread your final draft like a pro. Even if you aren’t a “natural” writer (and few of us are), you can learn to write polished, professional documents so you can capture your readers’ interest and hold their attention until the very last word.

Give your writing style a complete makeover in just two days!

Your writing style speaks volumes about who you are. Crisp, clear, mistake-proof business documents reveal a powerful, take-charge professional who’s going places, fast. On the other hand, sloppy spelling, muddled messages and grammar gaffes give the impression of someone who is careless and not to be trusted with important assignments.

If you want to hone your writing skills and make sure others see you as a confident, capable communicator, do not miss this dynamic workshop! It’s challenging, lively and so entertaining you’ll be amazed at how fast the time flies by. Rest assured, this program is in no way like elementary school grammar classes you snoozed through way back when. We’ve taken great pains to ensure this workshop, which incorporates the latest in adult learning techniques, is fun, fast-paced and high-energy.

There are 14 errors in the letter below. Can you spot them all?

Dear Mrs. Smith,

Please except my apologies for your recent problems with your account. Returning from vacation last week, your file received my immediate attention. According to the letter which you wrote to the company President and I, your account representative was “not responding in a timely manner”. Although you called him several times. Per your request, I have removed this employee from you’re account. The new representative who I have assigned to your account always takes good care of their clients. Your representative or myself will be contacting you next week to discuss your needs farther. Please be assured we are, as always dedicated to customer satisfaction, timeliness and providing exceptional service.

Yours truly,

Paul Wilson
Customer Service Manager

Dear Miss Pond,

In regards to our last meeting, I would like to inform you that I have thought at length about your proposal of new software, and I really feel like it would just not work at this time. We do not have money in our budget for that type of expense. Thank you for going to all the trouble of presenting it, but we can’t make use of that type of software right now.

I would like to learn more about your future projects, so keep me in mind when you are going to be presenting anything else.

Thank you,

John Doe
President
ABC Company

To smooth and polished!

I’d like to thank you for your software presentation at our staff meeting last week. I know you were pressed for time, and I appreciate your commitment to our goals. Your proposal showed you took the time to research our company’s needs, and your high-energy presentation style kept our meeting upbeat and lively.

Right now, we are unable to include any new software in our budget for the coming year. I will definitely keep you in mind for the future, however, and I hope you will continue to be available for presentations to our staff.

Thank you,

John Doe
President
