 CAREERTRACK®

This course qualifies for CPE, HRCI and PDC credits. See details on page 6.

Before you delegate your first job, make your first move of any kind —

You earned your supervisory position.

This seminar will help you make the most of it.

In your previous position, you did a great job. Yet, you're smart enough to know the skills that made you a great team player won't necessarily make you a great supervisor. For any new supervisor, training is key to success in this role.

- It's not enough to follow directions ...
now you must give directions about what gets done, when and by whom.
- It's not enough that your projects are accurate and on time ...
you have to help others keep their projects on track, and see that everyone works together.
- It's not enough to focus only on your department ...
suddenly you're a member of the management team. Your new peers will expect you to have a broader perspective, including other departments.
- It's not enough to keep yourself motivated ...
you have to be a coach, cheerleader and strong shoulder to people who have bad days, conflicts with each other and demands you might not be able to satisfy.

That's why you should attend this seminar — to help make your move into management smoother and more successful.

You'll use what you learn right away. If a tough people problem comes up, you'll know how to handle it. When you're faced with a crisis, you'll react with confidence. You'll be better equipped to keep your team motivated, productive and on target.

In just one day, you'll learn:

- How to start producing positive results right away
- Ways to avoid the problems that sabotage many new supervisors
- How to get the unvarnished truth about a new employee's position and performance
- What it takes to get productivity from people who aren't used to you being the boss
- How to size up your supervisor — so you can give better support and get more backing in return
- How to increase your visibility and earn the respect your position deserves schedule your first meeting or get this training under your belt!

Plus: You'll take home these essential "how to" supervisory tools

1. Leadership self-test:

Find out how you rate as a leader now — and how you can become more persuasive and powerful.

2. Employee motivation survey:

Get your employees to tell you what would increase their productivity.

3. Work-group assessment:

Determine your team's maturity, cohesion and stress levels — and adjust your leadership style accordingly.

4. Employee work-style assessment:

Pinpoint each team member's specific strengths and weaknesses.

5. Delegation self-assessment:

Could you benefit from delegating more? Discover what's holding you back.
