

Maximizing Productivity with Microsoft® Teams

Exploring connectivity and collaboration

Chat, collaborate, call and meet—all in one place from anywhere in the world—via Microsoft Teams. Microsoft Teams blends connectivity and productivity with elegance and ease of use. Join us for a this 3.5-hour interactive seminar as we dive into what Teams can do for you and your organization.

Discover all the basics and how supported apps and platforms integrate with Teams to give you a truly seamless collaborative environment. Learn how to manage conversations, video, document sharing, apps and more through Microsoft's most powerful collaboration platform. Inter-department communication and project mastery meet timesaving takeaways once you understand the full potential and capabilities of Teams. Learn the basics and beyond while maximizing productivity, connectivity and collaboration inside Microsoft Teams.

What You'll Learn

- Enable and configure Teams to optimize your organization's experience and needs.
- Keep everyone on the same page with on-going discussions using Chat and @mentions.
- Collaborate from anywhere, to anywhere, with anyone with live file-sharing and editing.
- Manage users and guests and understand the difference.
- Explore the basics of audio and video conferencing.
- Use the power of Tabs to customize your Teams experience.
- Navigate your way around the Teams environment with ease and confidence.
- Use teams and channels to focus on specific projects, departments, or interest.
- Explore the benefits of how Teams can help with structured, as well as non-structured collaboration.
- Understand the difference between Teams and Channels.
- Stay up to date with project deadlines using group calendars.
- Explore the power of the Admin Console.
- Explore available apps to enhance your Teams productivity and integration with Office 365.